Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Emergency ServicesCornerstone's Emergency Services program addresses the need for life saving crisis intervention and safe housing for those in imminent danger of interpersonal violence Crisis advocates maintain a 24 hour/7 day a week phone line and ensure callers receive the resources they need, including transportation to our shelter If pets are in need of boarding and safety, we utilize our Pets for Protection Program Cornerstone's 35-bed Emergency Shelter is a departure from the traditional communal-living model, instead designed with family living spaces, one of which is wheelchair accessible This allows for privacy, respects cultural diversity and provides a home-like environment in a time of crisis Having the shelter connected to Cornerstone's comprehensive community-based programming allows families full access to our complete continuum of services for adults and children In addition to regular meetings with their Primary Advocate, shelter residents work with Youth Counselors and a Parenting Specialist When the shelter is full or when shelter is not an appropriate option, Cornerstone partners with local hotels and motels in order to provide immediate safe housing to victims In 2018, we provided 114 adults (women, men and transgender individuals) and 75 children with 11,181 nights of safe housing and 35,543 meals

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Community and Economic Empowerment ServicesThe Community Services Program focuses specifically on helping victims achieve both safety and long term economic security The program includes individual economic advocacy, financial literacy, matched savings accounts, employment planning and a variety of group supportive and educational services All of our Community Services advocates work to help support victims as they deal with the practical problems of living that have resulted from the violence and abuse Cornerstone's supportive housing component, CORE (Centered on Results Everyday), combines two years of affordable housing and intensive supportive services for 13 families CORE families receive affordable housing as they work with Cornerstone staff to address their goal plans, participate in job readiness training, empowerment courses and financial literacy workshops Our Supportive Housing Specialists also work on-site at two affordable housing complexes, providing advocacy and resources to low-income families in order to help ensure they are able to maintain their housing
